Masters Degree—Through Cornerstone University

If the student has a B.A. from another university prior to enrolling, he/she may apply for a Master's degree.

1. Complete Phase I & II and be awarded Licensed Pastoral Counselor certificate or Certified Temperament Counselor or Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor.
2. Submit a copy (3-ring binder) of all the clinical notes for the twenty-five (25) persons that were counseled during this program. Everyone must generate an A.P.S. report for twenty (25) individuals in order to receive their certification as a Certified Pastoral Counselor. A thesis format is provided in the back of the program booklet. This meets the requirements for the Masters level thesis.
3. Submit the following:
 - a. A letter of authorization from the student stating that the National Christian Counselors Association has the authority to release his/her records and assist him/her in obtaining a Masters degree. College choice must be indicated in this letter.
 - b. A check in the amount of $1,500 to cover the matriculation, administrative and transfer fees for the Masters degree.
 - c. A check in the amount of $200 made payable to the ALCCS and stapled to a note requesting that the individual's license be upgraded from L.P.C. to Masters level license of Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor.
